FIRE INSURANCE RATE MAY TUMBLE

PARKING METER FUNDS MAY BE USED TO END PARKING PROBLEM HERE

Dan Andersen, city administrator, disclosed that the money collected from the parking meters is placed in the general fund, but can be withdrawn. He predicted that the city council would probably be happy to do so if the merchants who are investigating the parking problem should come up with a workable solution. The money could be used for off street parking lots, which could be sustained by funds collected in the future, Andersen said. He assured THE RECORD that in his opinion the council will cooperate with the merchants to the fullest extent, "if the plan is feasible."

The six committees of Mission street and San Pedro road merchants who are conducting the parking survey expect to have it finished in another two and one half weeks, Pete Markovich announced after Wednesday night's meeting.

According to Markovich, the two and one-half hour meeting Wednesday night was spent in hearing committee reports, and examining the way that other areas have attacked the parking problem. Actions taken by South San Francisco, Burlingame, Palo Alto and other near-by communities were examined.

A letter was sent to the state capital seeking advice from the traffic experts there.

Markovich said that the aim of the committees was to find a plan which all of the merchants would

By MONTE DAYTON

Visiting recently in Ventura with young SF Seal pitcher CHUCK DONLEY was his sister, CATHY DONLEY, of 1258 Brunswick street. Chucker Donley, 18-year-old Jeff graduate, is the youngest pitcher on the team.

Seen bustling up the streets of Colma at a relatively early hour of the foggy morn Wednesday was RAY CHARETTE, local busnessman.

Purpose of the excursion was Ray's work on the Chamber of Commerce parking meter survey.

He's really going after the facts in in one-two-three style.

MRS. HENRY DOELGER, driving a Cadillac, met sowewhat forcibly with a PG&E truck last week, with noticeable damage to the Cadillac.

JOHN McGRAW, local apothecary, is away from duties at the mortar and pestel, and he found a good place to get away from it all. He's vacationing in the Feather river area, doing a little fishing, mixed in with the normal quota of just-plain-loafing.

More vacation items: STANFORD HANNAH, Jeff high school executive head, has just returned from a week at Lake Tahoe. Liked it so well he may go back for a two-week turn later on this summer.

Also finding an intense liking for this vacation business is VERNA CALDERON, cleric at the high school. She spent a week at Camp Mather and also has ideas about going back for a spell.

MR. AND MRS. WALTER KESLER have just returned from the east, where the Mr. was a delegate to the meeting of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, U.S.A., which met in Minneapolis, Minn.

From the confab they visited their home state of West Virginny, then returned by way of Montana. Kesler is one of the elders of the Grace Presbyterian church here.

Staff Sergeant HARRY J. HATT, 81 Park Plaza drive, will take part in the annual summer maneuvers at the Marine Corps air station in El Toro, Calif.

BRIDGE AUBLET, Paris' gift to Daly City recently (she's spending six months here with MR. and MRS. R. V. LAVERTY, 183 East Vista) may not know what a shuffle-board table is, but her first impression saw her come up with an imaginative description.

Visiting a down-town drinkery, she viewed a patron stretched out stone-cold drunk on one of the shuffleboard tables.

Lowest Draft Call In Year Slated Here For August

The lowest draft call in more than a year is scheduled for the North county board, No. 57, next month.

According to Mrs. Virginia Anderson of Boards 57 and 58 only six men will be taken from the north county area.

Quta for Board 57 in July was 21 men.

However, Mrs. Anderson pointed out, the need for replacements will swell the figure again in September.

She predicted the call for that month would be nearly double the number to be taken in August.

A total of 29 men throughout the county will be called in August.

MAYOR GAGGERO TELLS ABOUT THE SM COUNTY FAIR

Daly City's Mayor Anthony J. Gaggero, who is president of the 19th annual San Mateo county Fair and Floral Fiesta, took time out of his busy schedule to make a few predictions about this year's show. He said, "I am very much enthused over this year's prospects. We are featuring new buildings and making our fairgrounds equal to any county fairgrounds on the circuit. With our extensive improvements and many and varied exhibits in all divisions, the theme 'Western Progress' will be an integral part of our fair."

DALY CITY COMMENDED FOR NO PEDESTRIAN DEATHS

FIRE CHIEF KENNEDY WILL MAKE REQUEST FOR NEW FIRE RATE

Long range planning by Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy, the city council and City Administrator Dan Andersen may result in the annual savings of thousands of dollars for Daly City home-owners when fire protection facilities become a reality.

The plan came to light in Andersen's office when he divulged that a tentative agreement had been reached with Architect Louis Baldini of South San Francisco for the design of the Westlake firehouse, and that bids on the firehouse should be called for within the next six weeks.

Mayor Anthony Gaggero, operator of an insurance agency, explained the plan by which thousands may be saved annually. He said that upon completion of the new facilities, including the Westlake firehouse, Fire Chief Kennedy will be instructed to request a change of classification for Daly City from the Fire Insurance Underwriters of San Francisco. At the present time Daly City is nationally rated as a Class Four city insurance wise. If the new equipment is adequate to raise Daly City to a Class Three city, a savings will result. This will be done after a survey is requested and taken by the Pacific Fire Rating Bureau of San Francisco.

A check with the bureau revealed that the savings could be anywhere between four per cent and

COUNCIL ASSIGNS DIRECTOR AFTER NIANTIC PETITION

The 63 Niantic street petitioners who appeared before the city council last week had part of their request granted when Recreation Director James Mason was ordered to place a playground supervisor on the playground.

BROADMOOR COPS ARE TAGGING MANY SPEEDERS

Broadmoor police are handing out an average of ten tickets per day to speeders who are ignoring the speeding regulations in the Garden Village area, according to Police Chief Ray Savage.

Savage disclosed that some of his men are doubling up to enforce the regulations which were set down at the most recent hearing of the Broadmoor police commission.

COUNCILMAN DENNIS ACQUITTED OF CHARGE OF ASSAULT AND BATTERY

Edward J. Dennis, Daly City councilman and president of the milk drivers union, local 226, was acquitted of assault and battery charges stemming from a June 1 dispute by Judge Fred Wyckoff of the central municipal court in Burlingame.

Charges were filed against Dennis by Thomas Foley of 446 West 25th avenue, San Mateo, after an argument on a Burlingame construction job where Foley was digging post holes.

In rendering his decision, Judge Wyckoff commented that he had no other choice since deputy district attorney Howard Hartley who was prosecuting the case wasn't sure what had taken place. The judge added, "It's getting so a couple of men can't slap each other around without running to court. The criminal court cannot be used in attempts to get civil damages. I rule in favor of the defendent."

Dennis was represented by attorney John E. Perry of San Francisco.

New Disability Benefits Begin January First

Increased disability insurance benefits recently enacted by the state legislature will not become effective until January 1, 1954, it was announced today by J. M. Williams, district disability insurance manager in San Francisco.

"The amendments to the law increased the weekly disability insurance benefit to a maximum of $35 and raised the hospital benefit to $10 a day, and specified that these new rates become effective with disabilities commencing on or after January 1," Williams said. "Therefore, for the balance of this year, benefits will be paid at the current rates, which are a maximum of $30 a week and an additional $8 a day for up to 12 days of hospitalization."

Disability insurance, Williams explained, is payable to persons who are unable to work because of non-industrial injuries or illnesses. Hospitalized individuals receive an additional benefit for each day of confinement. Claim forms and information about disability insurance may be obtained from any office of the California Department of Employment.

KELLY O. SNOWDEN ESCAPES FROM THE COUNTY JAIL FARM

An all points bulletin has been issued for Kelly O. Snowden, the six-foot blond, itinerant fruit picker who has a penchant for breaking windows.

Snowden escaped from the San Mateo county jail farm at 10:30 o'clock Thursday morning. He was a trustee at the correction institution.

Convicted of tossing a brick through the window of the Glen Five and Dime store in Daly City, Snowden was serving a three-months sentence at the time of his escape.

Willows and Oakland are other California cities where Snowden has performed his window-breaking feats.

SUBSTATION SQUABBLE SHOULD END MONDAY

City Administrator Dan Andersen said today that some clarification of the PG&E substation situation is necessary. He disclosed that the area has been annexed recently and has never been zoned, so the locating of the substation there will not constitute a rezoning as far as Daly City is concerned.

Both Andersen and Mayor Anthony Gaggero predicted that the zoning will occur at Monday night's council meeting after the second reading of the ordinance.

J. A. Rohl, local PG&E manager, estimated that the construction of the station will take six months, but said, "It looks like we have it at last."

At the council meeting the first reading of the ordinance to abandon Atlanta street will be read. This must be approved before the power company can go ahead with work on the substation. If Rohl's estimate is correct, the power station should be in operation sometime near the first of March, 1954.

Edward Larios Sues For False Arrest

Eduardo Larios, 35, of 48 Alexander street has filed a $20,000 false arrest suit against Sergeant David Hanson and Officer Gerald Schaeffer of the Daly City police and the Yellow Cab Co. of San Francisco in San Francisco.

The whole thing stemmed out of Larios' asserted refusal to pay Yellow Cab driver Charles Petterson $1.50 for crossing the San Mateo county line. The $1.50 was demanded in addition to $1.95 registered on the meter of Petterson's cab.

Petterson summoned Sergeant Hanson and Officer Schaeffer to the Larios home where the trio met him at the door. An exchange occurred between the men and Larios was booked for disturbing the peace. Later Judge Thomas L. Bocci dismissed Larios with the comment, "a man's home is his castle."

In his suit, Larios asks for $10,000 frrom the Yellow Cab Co. and a like amount from the Daly City officers. Counsel for the plaintiff is Thomas Markley.

Larios is employed as an assistant manager at the F. V. Valdes Co., an importing and exporting firm.

Alemany Signals Wait For Go-Ahead From Sacramento

Lack of funds is holding up the construction of the new traffic signals on Alemany boulevard according to George Pingry of the state division of highways.

Pingry disclosed that the department has enough funds to erect the two-way signals which were originally requested, but the left-hand turn signal could not be constructed until additional funds are available. The matter has been referred to Sacramento, Pingry said, and he doesn't know when the funds will be appropriated, or if they will.

In the meantime, the city council of Daly City has requested that the department of highways go ahead and construct the two-way signals and do it in such a way that the addition of the left-hand turn signal can be added easily, Dan Andesren, city administrator disclosed.

At the present time, neither the city council nor the department of highways can predict accurately when erection of the signals will begin.

Brunswick Extens'n. Plans Submitted To City Council Study

Engineer John Blaume's plans for finishing the Brunswick extension plan are under the scrutiny of the city council, City Administrator Dan Andersen disclosed this week.

No date has been set for the resumption of the work on the project because only an oral agreement exists between the council and Blaume at the present time.

DC-COLMA GROUP NAMES DIRECTORS

The newly formed Daly City-Colma association, a group whose avowed purpose is to "work for betterment of the entire Daly City-Colma area," named six temporary directors at their second meeting held Tuesday night. Approximately 40 persons were present.

George Lagomarsino was given the title of permanent chairman, Bob Dyer was selected as treasurer and Jim Keller was named to fill the secretary post. Temporary directors chosen were: Joe Lewkowitz, Charles Van Horn, Bud Matheny, Ray Charette, Attilio Conserva and Pat Van Over.

A group of three to work in conjunction with the Chamber of Commerce on the parking meter survey was also formed. Lagomarsino heads the trio, which includes Mrs. Van Over and Matheny.

The association passed a motion that any property owner or businessman in the area is eligible to become a member.

Next regular meeting of the group is scheduled for Tuesday, August 18, while the board of directors will convene this Monday night to draft by-laws and make plans for incorporation.

At a later date the board of directors will be increased to 12.

Bank Wasn't Robbed; It Was All A Mistake

Several passers-by thought a heist was being pulled on the Daly City branch of the Bank of America yesterday morning as the alarm jangled ominously for nearly half an hour.

However, bank officials explained the alarm is nothing to get alarmed about—it goes off, by mistake, on the average of four times a week.

Dan Harris, local manager, said the tellers, while picking up the green stuff, accidentally pulled out the slugs that set off the alarm.

PINION GEAR OUT; RECORD DELAYED

For those of you who are receiving this issue of THE RECORD late, we wish to extend an explanation.

As the press run was about one-tenth through Thursday, a pinion gear on the press broke, causing one of the few one-day delays recorded in this newspaper's many continuous years of publication.

The broken gear was replaced Friday morning after several hours labor, and the press was rolling again.

THE RECORD thanks its readers for bearing with us in this unforeseen delay.

Storm Control Plans For Sewage District Are Completed

The north county sanitation district's sewage plant moved a step closer toward realization this week as engineer Harry Jenks announced plans for the storm water control facilities have been completed.

The storm water section will commence near Alemany extension and carry flood overflow past the plant site.

According to Anthony Gaggero, head of the sanitation district board of directors, this part of the work must be completed during the summer. He indicated the trustees might advertise for bids at this Monday's meetings.

Meanwhile, the engineer reported that November seemed the earliest possible date for completion of plans for the actual plant.

No new movement on the part of several Colma residents to be annexed to the district have been revealed.

John Newton, mayor of Colma and instigator of the annexation plan, said he and the other residents were waiting for Edwin Smith, Daly City engineer, to make a survey to determine cost of such a plan.

Health Report For June

Fifty-eight persons reported cases of illness to the San Mateo health office from the Daly City area during the month of June.

Most prevelant disease was measles with 36 cases reported. Next came mumps with 17 cases reported. There were four cases of chicken pox; and one case of German measles.

Thirteen cases of polio were reported in the county, but none from this area.

MARKOVICH LAUDED FOR WORK DONE IN AID-TO-KOREA DRIVE; ONLY $300 RAISED SO FAR IN SAN MATEO COUNTY

Pete Markovich, Daly City Insurance dealer, was named by James Tormey, county superintendent of schools and chairman of the Aid-To-Korea drive, as the man in San Mateo county who has worked hardest to help the orphans, widows and amputees of that war-torn land.

"The drive cannot be considered a success," Tormey said. "The whole county has contributed only $300."

Tormey attributed the failure of the drive to several things including the present attitude of the Korean government towards the peace truce, the expense of summer vacations, a lack of coordination in the organizing of the drive, and the failure of people to understand what the drive was for.

In considering the present attitude of the Korean government, Tormey said, "The Korean government is unpopular at the moment because of its stand against the truce. The people resent this and it certainly is a vital factor in the lack of contributions. This is just one example which shows the timing of the Aid-To-Korea drive was off."

Attacking the lack of coordinated organization Tormey disclosed that the drive was over in other parts of the United States before it was begun in California. Also, he pointed out that the drive here was supposed to be over a while back, but now he has learned that radio publicity for the drive has been scheduled.

Speaking of summer vacations, the drive chairman recalled that the Community Chest goal for the

FRANKFORT FINISHED AFTER DELAY DUE TO CONSTRUCTION STRIKE

Frankfort playground was completed this week and is now ready for use by the children of the neighborhood.

Facilities available include a tiny tot area with swings and a merry-go-round and a baseball diamond.

Construction on the playground has been delayed for some time by the construction strike which ended recently.

Recreation Director James Mason has named Miss Bobbie Carroll to supervise the playground.

EXCITEMENT STIRS UP HANOVER STREET MONDAY NIGHT

Hanover street was the scene of a stabbing and two arrests Monday night.

Stabbed in the abdomen was Mrs. Juanita Hughs of 2305 Old San Jose road, Santa Cruz, who was taken to the Junipero hospital for treatment by Officers Jimmy Welch and Art Linhares.

Arrested were her husband, David Hughs of the same address and Edward McLaughlin of 666 Hanover who were scuffling in the doorway of McLaughlin's home when the Daly City police arrived.

No charges were filed against the trio.

YOUR NEIGHBORS AND MINE

By Betty Brush

Hello Neighbors:

Well this is the last week of vacation for yours truly and I will be home by the time this is being read. I know lots of things have happened and am anxious to catch up on all the goings and comings of your neighbors and mine but in the meantime let's have some of the news of their doings as of now.

Everyone knows ROBERT BYRNE of the Radio Shop Byrnes. He has started the vacation off very nicely. Fact is, both of his children are not so happy at the present moment, being confined to bed with the measle. Measles, like the mumps, are no respector of time and would just as soon come to visit a person during vacation as well as during school time. Tough luck kids, but at least you won't have them next year.

MR. and MRS. STANFORD HANNAH are back from a week's vacation at Lake Tahoe. They had a very quiet and restful vacation which was the purpose of the trip. All the neighbors are glad to see them back again.

News And Views

Among those leaving for the weekend was MRS. MAY BAKER, who took off to Petaluma to see her son and family. May is still waiting for that picture to come out.

ANTHONY KALUGA, manager of our Bruce & Griffin 5 & 10, has just returned from a trip to Philadelphia, Penna. He spent his vacation visiting his mother.

Mumps are with us again. The latest victim of them being little TONY LIGOURI. As Tony has a younger brother and sister it looks like Bonnie is in for a siege.

This is a vacation! MR. and MRS. McGEEIN left July 7th for Salt Lake City. From there they will go on to Spring City to see their foster child, WANDA DAHL who will be remembered by all the younger generation as graduating from Jefferson as WANDA SADLER. Mrs. McGeein is most interested in this part of the trip as she expects to be a grandma by the time she gets there. From there they go on to Zion National park for a week and then on to Las Vegas, Nev., where they will meet Mrs. McGeein's mother. From there all three are returning to Los Angeles to visit with McGeein's mother for a week. Then starts the homeward trip, stopping off at Santa Cruz for three days. Now comes the final leg of the journey—home to good old Daly City, where according to Mrs. McGeein, it will be good to come home to. They will be gone approximately a month with time of arrival set tentatively for August 11. All the many friends and neighbors wish them the happiest of vacations.

Servicemen

By the time this is being read, PVT. TED M. DAHL, who at the present moment as well as for the last seven months has been spending his time on OLD BALDY, Korea, will have the news that he is a father. Ted is the husband of the former Wanda Sadler of our town and according to him, the boys have come up and gone down Old Baldy for the past six months. Some are no longer with them but Baldy and all it's horrors is still waiting for those who are yet to spend their time there. Ted expects to be in the States by the last of July, but isn't too hopeful as when one is in the Army one never knows just when a person is going to get those long awaited orders for home.

CPL. BILLY BRANDT of Knowles avenue is home for twenty days. After his leave he goes to El Toro, Calif., for further training as a jet mechanic for two months and then on to Korea. He is a member of the Fifth Marine Fighter squadron. He still says the Marines are the best branch of the service.

BOB BRANDT of Knowles avenue will leave soon for combat infantry training at Camp Pendleton, Calif. It is good to see these two home at the same time.

CPL. ROY (Babe) HUNTSMAN of Los Olivos avenue is in Jacksonville, Florida, where he is taking advanced training as a jet mechanic. He expects to be home soon on leave.

CPL. AL FLYNN of Brunswick street, who is in the Marines, is at school learning to be a typewriter repairman. He has just about completed his training and will be assigned to Hawaii, leaving the 25th of July.

Another Marine, PFC DON TRAVASKIS of Washington street, is in San Diego. He is a member of the Marine band and has been assigned a permanent tour of duty there.

PVT. CECIL VALVERTI of Wilson street was heard from this week. He is in the U. S. Army and at the present time is in the motor transport corps. He is rather far away from home, being in Washington, D. C.

Another home town boy is in Korea. PVT. LEFTY GOODNOUGH of the U. S. Army has been gone from our town for eight months. The last four months he has spent in the same place that has seen so many of the boys late-ly—Korea.

Items of Interest

This is an item and something that the neighbors should know, concerning one of your neighbors and mine. We all know CARL, the genial owner of the Relish Bakery. He not only has a good bakery, sets up innumerable wedding cakes, and sees to it that all our birthday cakes are ready on time but he has a hobby. We all have heard of the St. Anthony Food kitchen and the good that it does for those less fortunate than we. Well, all the day-old bread, cakes, rolls, pies, etc. (and they are just as nice as the fresh ones), that Carl can load in his car are delivered in person to the folks at St. Anthony's. This column would like to offer an orchid (or should I say cigars) to a wonderful man for a wonderful hobby.

How long does Fouth of July last? Seems the youngsters started shooting off firecrackers two weeks before and from what I hear they are still at it. Fortunately, so far, no one has been hurt but it must be sheer luck or something as the chances they take and the things that they can find to blow up are amazing. The only thing is, neighbors, didn't we do the same things ourselves a few (?) years back?

Vacationing at the Stumble Inn in Felton are MR. and MRS. ALLEN BRUSH and family. This cabin has always been the scene of many a good time in the past and probably will be in the future. MIKE and PUDGE can add more poison oak to that which they already have. Happy vacation, Brushes.

Poison oak seems to be the bane of a lot of the youngsters of our town at the present time. The hills are such a swell place to hike in and play in and it does keep them off the streets. It really seems a shame that they have to suffer a week for one day's pleasure.

DENTALMAN GEORGE T. EVANS was welcomed home last week with that long awaited family dinner in honor of his 20th birthday which was spent on the way home from Japan. Attending this affair were MR. and MRS. R. B. EVANS and family and MR. and MRS. RALPH STEWART and daughters. His favorite cake, (chocolate) was waiting for him on his arrival. Happy birthday, George.

Another birthday dinner was held last week. DELORES MADDEN celebrated her 13th birthday with a dinner attended by members of her family and also some of her friends. Many happy birthdays, Delores.

Just heard today of the death of a friend. She leaves behind her not only her husband and children, and the rest of her family, but a memory. Anyone who ever met or knew her will never forget her. She had the most wonderful sense of humor and a kind thought or word and a beautiful smile for one and all. It is about ten years since I have seen her as she lived in another state, but even now I can hear her laugh and remember her smile. The heavens are brighter tonight for the one new star which has been added to them. When we meet again may her laugh and smile be waiting for me.

Another week's news is in your hands and there will be more next week so keep phoning and reading and the column will try and always have something of interest to your neighbors and mine. 'Bye now.

county had been difficult without trying to pry money out of people who were spending savings on summer vacations.

Explaining what the people didn't understand, Tormey pointed out that the Korean government would not be allowed to handle the funds of the Aid-To-Korea drive. The purpose of the drive is to aid widows, orphans, and amputees who are victims of the Korean war and the fund will be administered by an American foundation set up for that specific purpose," Tormey emphasized.

The San Mateo county superintendent of schools closed the interview by saying that he would like to thank THE RECORD for printing the Aid-To-Korea coupon on the front page, and the people who had clipped it out and sent it in to his office with contributions. He said that these coupons were one of the important single factors in the raising of the $300.

A goal of $5 million dollars was set for the Aid-to-Korea fund. This is just one third of the sum raised through servicemen's contributions. Much of the $13 million donated by servicemen was raised in army camps throughout the United States from boys who had never been to Korea.

The drive was a project backed by President Dwight Eisenhower and administered by his brother Dr. Milton Eisenhower.

Meter Funds May Be Used To End Parking Problem

find acceptable. He described this as a problem in diplomacy.

When the survey ends the plan considered most feasible will be to the city council. Another group who will be consulted will be the Daly City police.

Under special investigation is the parking meter situation. If the survey shows that there are some "dead spots" in the line of meters, it may be recommended that these be eliminated and that more meters be put in "live areas." Markovich cautioned that this is in the speculative stage at the present time.

Off street parking has been offered as another solution to the problem. A complete listing of vacant areas along Mission street and San Pedro road is being examined for the possibility of erecting a parking lot.

New Show Opens At Curran Theatre

"Carnival In Flanders," the new musical comedy hit, starring Dolores Gray and John Raitt, will open a four-week engagement at the Curran Theatre, August 3. It will play nightly except Sundays, with matinees on Wednesdays and Saturdays. Seats are now on sale for all performances, or can be secured by mail order.

Fire Chief Kennedy Will Make Request For New Fire Rate

12 per cent. F. R. Harrison, assistant manager of the bureau, refused to make a prediction because there are so many variables to take into consideration when reclassification occurs. He did admit that there is a general tendency to save policy holders 10 per cent when a city is moved from one bracket to another.

Harrison explained that reclassification would mean only a four per cent savings if Daly City were to be placed in a 3B bracket, but said that 12 per cent could be saved if it were to be placed in a 3A bracket. He added that he would be more willing to discuss the matter when it was officially called to his attention.

Mayor Gaggero and Andersen scoffed at Harrison's cautiousness, and predicted that the savings would be around 10 per cent of present premiums.

Baldini, the architect under consideration by the city council, may be hired at Monday night's meeting, according to Andersen and Mayor Gaggero. He is from South San Francisco. Some of his work includes the addition to the South City library, a school which is under construction there and a large office building which is going up on one of the city's busiest streets.

If hired, the new architect will be following recommendations of Fire Chief Kennedy who has prepared a functional design for the new firehouse. Kennedy has been visiting firehouses in the area and carefully considering where the most efficient place to establish equipment can be. The functional design means the use to which each part of the building will be put. The structural design which will concern Architect Baldini must make allowances for the functional design.

In The Past

10 Years Ago In The Record

July 22, 1943—Sixteen members bers and friends of Crocker PTA enjoyed a delicious Chinese luncheon at the Cathay House, Grant avenue and California street, Tuesday, July 13. After the luncheon the ladies strolled slowly down Grant avenue admiring the antique jewelry and other interesting articles displayed in the shop windows.

Those who attended the luncheon were: Mrs. Olga Bordson, Mrs. Dolores Lawrey, Mrs. Eve Hall, Mrs. Dorothy Starkovich, Mrs. Anna Storm, Mrs. Florence Beattie, Mrs. Ruth Morris, Mrs. Julie V. Jordan, Mrs. Barbara Bordson, Wilma Cassasa, Mrs. Hazel Cassasa, Mrs. Virginia Davidson, Mrs. Eve Hobbs, Mrs. Florence McKay, Mrs. Vivian Pahlka, and Mrs. Orvilla D. Pauw.

Skipper Frank Coughlin announced that members of the Sea Scout Ship 144 are working to get a boat in ship for participation in the annual Stockton regatta, September 4, 5, 6.

Other projects of recent nature for the group have been a camping and boating trip for six cabin boys at Clear Lake Oaks July 4 to 11 and the preparing of six boys for the board of review to pass the requirements of able seamen.

The camping trip, supervised by Coughlin, was enjoyed by Bob Desmond, Bob Merritt, Charles Rogers, Bob Coughlin, Jack Shipman, and Gerald Powers.

Three local couples receiving the congratulations of friends and relatives on the arrival of new babies include: Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Anderson, Colma, a daughter; Mr. and Mrs. DeMattei, Daly City, a daughter; and Mr. and Mrs. Amos B. Smathers, Daly City, a daughter.

15 Years Ago In The Record

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Augustien and children, Myrtle, Jessie and Charles, motored to Bib Basin Sunday and spent the day visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kennedy and family who are spending the summer there.

The Misses Marge and Tessie O'Connor have returned from their vacation at Rio Nido.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McKee and son Leonard of Evergreen avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ross and daughters, Dorothy and Alice, and Mrs. Julia Richele of Peoria street motored to Vallejo last Saturday where they spent the weekend.

Dorothy, Gladys and Buster Eldrup, Mary, Margaret, Patricia, and John Murray and Grant and Neil Blake spent last Wednesday at Balboa Park playing tennis.

Mr. and Mrs. Brush of Niantic returned home last Sunday after spending several two weeks in Big Basin.

The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handiwork. (Psalm XIX, 1)

Looking up at the constellations which nightly dot heaven's floor, we realize our own insignificance. Forgetting the troubles which oppressed us by day, we can be thankful for the consciousness which enables us to comprehend faintly this celestial pageant. For it is true that the heavens declare the glory of God.

Bonelli Decries The Super-High Tax Trend

(Ed. Note: The following is an address delivered by William G. Bonelli, chairman of the California state board of equalization, at the 21st annual meeting of National Association of Tax Administrators. His message, we believe, sums up many of the evils of present-day confiscatory taxation and the comparable evil of tax administration. Bonelli's words are strikingly applicable on the local scene, as well as on a nationwide scope.)

As we approached the rostrum, our host, Archie Simon, advised me that in his welcoming speech he was merely going to thank the officers and committees for their efforts in organizing this convention, welcome all who are attending, and then wish for the best. He said that mine was to be the serious burden of developing perspective and of getting the conference under way. I hasten to advise you that our most capable vice-president, Spencer E. Bates, of New York, was assigned this duty, but because of the pressure of official business in New York, he was unable to attend. By chance rather than plan, I appear before you giving you my words when you had been entitled to hear the voice of Spencer Bates. If the result be pleasing and acceptable, I claim full credit. Should a jarring or unhappy condition result, it is entirely the fault of Mr. Bates, who should have been here to speak for himself.

Before beginning our serious discussion, may I compliment President Shaw on his glowing description of the beauties of our meeting place. Even his vast vocabulary proves the inadequacy of words when applied to the glories of Yellowstone National Park. Those of us from Los Angeles invite your attention to the bizarre grandeurs of this suburb of Los Angeles. We warn the younger members, not yet hardened to high altitudes and convention excitement, that they should walk slowly, eat lightly, and refrain from undue excitement. This official group, meeting a mile and a half up in the air, representing as we do a people frequently a mile and a half up in the clouds of idealism, should be be reminded that either of these conditions not properly appraised and wisely met can bring catastrophic results.

As we view the glories of nature, the freshness of spring, and the brilliance of newly opened flowers, and dream of using our fishing tackle as we plan the coming vacation, it is natural to assume that all is well with our world.

As responsible officials, it is proper for us to leaven this spring fever perspective with a note of realism. In the world of international relations, business, finance, and taxation, grim shadows are apearing. Yes, the ghosts of unhappy past exneriences are more than dimly visible.

A jittery stock market periodically makes new lows for 1953. Business credit is being restricted, money is getting tight, interest rates are being advanced, bonds are being discounted—even those of our own Uncle Sam.

Commodity prices are going down hill, destroying purchasing power and tax-paying capacity.

International trade has shrunk to such a low point that rate wars have already appeared in international shipping. General cargo rates are now about fifty per cent below those of a year ago.

The American Flag now flies over fourteen per cent less of our own general cargo exports than it did in 1951.

For the first time in 20 years the State Auditor of Illinois has had to take over three Chicago banks for liquidation or reorganization. We can no longer ignore the reality that a severe downward adjustment of our economy has begun and that world-wide deflation is in prospect.

We who have an appreciation of the history of philosophy, of governments and of civilizations, see our proud nation wallowing in 264 billions of dollars of red ink. In government refinancing we see the new 3¼ per cent coupon bonds selling below par within a month after their issue, and other government bonds off as much as 10 per cent.

As more and more taxpayers run out of cash reserves and are unable to borrow to meet their tax burdens and go into default, the next step arrives.

The tax gatherer is then asked to begin the sweating and the whipping of the taxpayer. Actual physical beating of the taxpayer in an effort to extract more pieces of silver as practiced in Christ's time has been replaced by a more sinister and abhorrent procedure.

Today's bureaucrats may write their own formula of what the taxpayer should have paid. They send bills based on arbitrary assessments, file liens on all of the taxpayer's property, recommend indictments for tax evasion, allege the existence of fraud to stay the running of the statute of limitations, and too often regard all taxpayers as corrupt and incompetent. Today's tax gatherer from his position of security, untroubled by the costs of his office space, his secretary, his phone bill, or other obligations of the business world, glibly advises the farmer to use four men to milk the cow, one on each outlet, to speed up production. The fact that when the cow is fed and the milkers paid there is nothing left for the taxpayer is not the revenue hunter's concern. Making an economic success of "old bossy" is a little more involved than the average tax gatherer realizes.

In appraising the misery of today's taxpayer, we cannot disregard the sorry plight of our nation as it stumbles its way through the booby traps of international involvements.

The picture of the American taxpayer really "done in oil" is that of six per cent of the world's population owning seven per cent of the world's wealth, and attempting to support the breeding, brawling billions of people scattered over the earth's surface. This is attempted with the scant cooperation of our allies and little thanks from our beneficiaries. Yet the taxpayer, himself becoming desperate, is asked to carry on in the name of idealism.

Unsuccessful in stopping communism abroad, we seem unaware of the fact that the teachings of Karl Marx are almost 75 per cent in force within our own borders. Marx, who taught that the drying up of the sources of private capital was the simple way to destroy free enterprise and the capitalistic system could, were he alive, point with pride to our progressive or graduated income tax, which he espoused, with its maximum rates up to 92 per cent of the annual income of the American taxpayer. His recommendation that the right of inheritance be abolished has been almost embraced by inheritance tax rates reaching up to 77 per cent. As he recommended, we are drying up the sources of private capital.

Now, lest I be accused of partisanship, may I suggest that it was not Democrats alone who brought us to this condition. They had plenty of help from unthinking and greedy Republicans. The picture of the Republican business man standing on the highway of busines with thumbs pointed in both directions is still vivid. Like the road hobo of old, he would travel in any direction if offered a free ride. It was not a party, but rather a people that let this blight become ours.

In further extenuation of my position, may I suggest that in California we are non-partisan. That indicates that we don't hate any party. Our government is known as a middle of the road government. This means it goes down the middle of the road interfering with traffic both to the left and to the right.

To get back to our histories, we learn that in the history of civilization, every form of government has been tried. Pure democracy, representative government, limited monarchy, constitutional monarchy, beneficent dictators, tyrannical dictators—everything has been tried. Through all of these institutional set-ups, various idealisms and philosophies have been experimented with. The lesson is clear that whenever any government increases its take from the taxpayer to more than 25 per cent of its national income, it points for bankruptcy, repudiation of obligations, and dictatorship.

Today you and I work for the first four months of every year for government, and assign about 33 1/3 per cent of our income for tax revenue obligations—and this in the face of the inescapable lessons of history.

So we find that we, like all previous mankind, face a constant clash of realism against idealism. The laws of nature are inexorable. The laws of self-preservation, the laws of supply and demand, the principle that charity must begin at home cannot be eliminated by man's machinations. The tenets of our wholesome Christianity, like those of the other 133 religions of the world, may be used to temper and to cushion the severities of an institution or an environment, but they never have and they cannot wholly supplant the hard realities of nature's laws. One need look no farther than to the Red dictatorship in Russia to find his answer. If not kept in proper balance, the failure to recognize reality will eventually result in the destruction of faith, hope, charity, and all idealism. When in taxation the point of diminishing return is reached and desperation takes over, your civilization, like those that have already marched down the corridors of time, will be but a memory.

In the face of this disquieting picture of business conditions, dangerous burdens of taxation, and directionless international relations, the responsibility of the tax administrator is two-fold.

Our first obligation, that of American citizens, is to factually evaluate our ideals and their limitations and to corageously warn and advise a people not to commit economic and political suicide. We should help rebuild a belief in the thoughts that thrift, self-reliance, decent living and respect for one's word are not reproachable. Substitutes are not necessarily an improvement on original things. The prevalent idea that by taking a concentrated food pill you avoid the need of a steak; that governmental insurance and pensions excel over personally carried insurance, and that artificial insemination is a safe way to perpetuate our race, should be tempered with the thought that the old-fashioned steak and insurance, and other old-fashioned processes have a longer and more proven virtue than many of the more recent innovations. The hopelessness of our back-breaking international expenditures which results from our idealistic defiance of the laws of nature should be made known to our citizens before they learn it the hard way, and too late to save their American institutions.

Our second, and more official obligation is in reference to a renovated and improved attitude and consideration on our part for the taxpayer and his predicament. I urge here no softened attitude toward the intentional tax evader or the intentional perpetrator of fraud against his government. He merits and should receive the full penalties of the law. But you must guard yourself and your employees against judging the majority of taxpayers by the reprehensible standards of the exception. Remember that all Federal fraud cases for the last ten years have produced about 100 million dollars in revenue, or about one-tenth of one per cent of the total for that decade. Don't misjudge 99 9/10 per cent of our citizenry by the few who are guilty, for you must then include yourself, and that, you know of your own knowledge, would be absurd.

That specific tax reforms are overdue is evidenced by the tax studies assigned to our various committees. Our mad-house of a tax set-up must be overhauled and redone by logical steps to avoid a breakdown in revenue production. There have been taxpayer revolts before, when correction failed to be made in timely order.

Specifically it is our duty to help bring about a segregation of the fields of taxation between governmental agencies. Double and multiple taxation means several sets of competing tax collectors, all chewing on the same tax base. They use different forms, varying report dates, unique interpretations, overlapping audits, and a variety of tax rates and penalties, all of which result in confusion and justifiable resentment on the taxpayer's part.

For your own good you should investigate the practices of your personnel and procedures. Alleging fraud to deprive a taxpayer of his statutory rights is dishonest unless he is guilty of fraud. You are guilty in such a case—and not the taxpayer. Often, on a technicality, a deduction is disallowed in one year by a ruling that it should have ben claimed in an earlier year. If the statute of limitations has run against the filing of a refund application by the taxpayer, you are picking his pocket by denying him what the law said was his. While accusing your source of revenue of dishonesty, remember that honesty and decency should begin at home.

On this, the 21st Annual Convention of NATA, our coming-of-age party, I remind our now adult group that the Golden Rule, while a little old-fashioned, is still worth following in your relations with John Q. Public.

I close with the hope that next year's meeting of the NATA will be in a setting made by nature equally as beautiful as this. And that by courageous approach to our own duties, wise reforms in our tax theories, and simplification of our tax processes, we will have done our part to revitalize free enterprise and to protect the dignity and security of free men and women in America.

MY MAD WORLD

by Leonore Brewer

The fear that haunts every writer, however humble, is that the thing he last wrote is going to be his last. He walks on the edge of a bottomless pit, from which periodically arises his inspiration, waiting with quiet desperation for the day when his voice shouting down into the blackness will return no answering echo. It is a fear that walks behind him as he goes to mail his latest masterpiece to his editor. It is the fear that stifles his joy at a job well done, it is the fear that gazes out at him from the mirror, and with a ghastly grimace asks, "And what are we going to say next time?"

As he trudges from column to column, or from book to book (the latter a fate almost too horrible to contemplate) he is aware that out there somewhere, shrouded in the mists that mercifully hide his future from his present, that day, that hour is waiting for him with inexorable patience. How will he face up to it when, through the shadows, he sees it looming over him? Will he abandon his typewriter on a convenient hummock and go on, never to be the same again, conscious of a void which will never be filled, or will be stall for time and write a "pot-boiler?"

It is a fear not entirely endemic to writers, but can be found in memoirs of singers, who in the last few seconds before going on stage find that they haven't the faintest idea of what that first note is supposed to be. It can be found in dancers, even of the stature of Danilova, who once forgot an entire variation. Conversely, there have been others whose output was so prodigious as to lead one to believe that for them the day couldn't possibly have been long enough, and who must have been haunted by the thought that the hour of their death would find them with so much still unsaid. One is reminded of Schubert who would go to sleep with his glasses perched on his nose so that not a moment of the ensuing day would be wasted.

There have been all sorts of weapons devised to combat this fear. Fitzgerald used one, only to be engulfed in it. Me? Well, when my typewriter looks at me with a malevolence unbelievable in a supposedly inanimate object, I know that the time has come to put Beethoven's symphonies on the record player, yes, all nine, and let their majesty and glory roll over me and drown me. As I go down I generally take Bartlett with me, and there at the bottom of the sea of sound I browse through the thoughts of the great. Of the many memorable words I have wandered through today, let me send these up to you:

"There are only two tragedies in life: not getting what you want and getting what you want."

NEW APPOINTEES GET TO WORK—Sketching plans for the Red Cross booth at the San Mateo County Fiesta Aug. 14-22, is Mrs. Jack Dreyfuss, display chairman (center), while Gurden Mooser, public relations chairman and Mrs. Dreyfuss were recently appointed by Dan Minto, chapter chairman, to their volunteer posts with the San Mateo county chapter, American Red Cross.

Probation Department Collects $47587.41 In Year Just Passed

During the year 1952 the San Mateo County Probation department collected $47587.41 and returned this money to the tax payers of the county, either directly or indirectly, by way of the general fund of the county.

Repayments by adults on probation for damage amounted to $6961.08 they had done by issuing fictitious checks, etc. $1491.15 was collected from juveniles for damages they had done to windows, stolen cars, etc.; $1491.15 was collected as fines against juveniles for various misdemeanors; $167.50 was collected from juveniles as traffic fines; $3677 was collected from adults in "failure to provide cases" where the men in divorce cases had failed to support their children.

$25473.23 was collected from various parents for the support of children in foster homes under the supervision of the probation department. In these cases the county pays $50 per month for the support of the child in a foster home, and the parents are ordered to reimburse the county according to their ability to pay. Another $2987.45 was collected in miscellaneous items.

In short, an average of $3965.62 per month was collected by the Probation Department and returned to the tax payers of the county.

HOW CAN I?

By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I remove nail polish stains from leather upholstery?

A. Daub it quickly with nail polish remover and follow that immediately with a cloth dipped in warm water. Apply saddle soap later if a dull spot remains.

Q. How can I darn a hole in a flimsy curtain?

A. Cover the hole with a piece of white paper and run back and forth over it with the sewing machine needle. Then launder the curtain to dissolve the paper, and a neat darn remains.

Q. How can I clean enameled woodwork?

A. Mix one cup of kerosene, one cup of vinegar, and a half-cup of water in a bottle. Shake it up well, apply to the woodwork with a soft cloth, and follow that up with a dry, clean cloth.

Q. How can I remove spots of paint from my shoes?

A. Try wetting the head of a kitchen match and rubbing the spots with this.

Q. What can I do if a hole in a plastered wall becomes too large to hold a screw?

A. Pack the hole with steel wool, and insert the screw into this. Or, poke a wooden match into the hole, break it off at the wall surface, and then replace the screw.

Q. How can I remedy small throw rugs that have a tendency to slip?

A. You can prevent these rugs from slipping along the floor by attaching several jar rubbers to the under side, or by shellacking the reverse side.

Q. How can I brighten dull spots on my rugs, caused by the weight of furniture?

A. Rub some French chalk into the spots thoroughly with a small brush, then remove the chalk with the vacuum cleaner.

Q. How can I add a gloss to tile after it has been washed?

A. Cover it with a thin coating of laundry starch. Let this dry, then polish it off with a dry soft cloth.

Q. How can I avoid steaming up the bathroom when I draw my bath?

A. Run cold water first, then add hot water to it until you get the desired mixture. After a shower, turn on the cold water for a few minutes until the steam clears up.

Q. Is it possible to lay new concrete successfully right on top of an old concrete surface?

A. Yes; but be sure first to get the old surface perfectly clean with soap and water, and have it thoroughly wet when the new concrete is applied.

Q. What is a good substitute glue when I've run out of the real thing?

A. Colorless nail polish makes a good substitute for most purposes.

DINNER TONIGHT, GUEST DAY SUNDAY FOR OCEAN VIEW

Sunday is guest day at the Ocean View Christian church. The congregation is still meeting at the Lakeside Dancing academy, 107 Sadowa street, just off San Jose avenue, on the second floor. The morning service is at 10:45 o'clock and will be followed by a coffee-time for members and guests.

Howard Pat McConnell, the minister, who has just returned from the Portland International Convention of the Disciples of Christ, will tell another of his interesting stores, "Jap Boy Across the Hall."

Tonight (Friday) the men of the church will serve a dinner at the Pilgrim Congregational church, 400 Randolph, and it is Ladies night. Mr. McConnell will show picture slides of the recent convention. The Ladies sextette of the church will sing several numbers. John O'Keefe leads in popular singing, and Marcia Golden will play her violin. Eugene Golden is master of ceremonies. Serving with him are Loren Rand and Clifford McMillen. The Young people will meet in the Jensen home Monday evening, 3521 Alemany.

The Bible Study Group will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bryan, 99 Curtis, Thursday night, July 30, at 7:30 o'clock.

Rev. Arthur Miller Will Talk Sunday At Grace Presbyterian

The reverend Arthur Miller of San Francisco will enter the pulpit of the Grace Presbyterian church next Sunday in absence of the pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kesler have recently returned from the meeting of the General Assembly of Prebyterian churches of the United States. This year's General Assembly was held in Minneapolis, Min. Kesler is an elder in the Grace Presbyterian church.

Community Presbyterian Church Schedules Many Movies For The Summer

The Community Presbyterian church, 820 Larchmont street in Broadmoor has planned a trip around the world through motion pictures for children who attend the 9:45 Sunday School classes on Sunday mornings. The picture scheduled for next Sunday is "Wings To The World" and is about that South American country, Brazil.

Continuing until September 13, the series of pictures will show Southwest Asia, India, China, Korea, Japan and Alaska. The final film will concern the rural United States and is called "The Cowboy's Hitching Post."

Children from the fourth grade up through the Coffee Class are invited on this motion picture tour of the world.

Reverend John A. Glasse, minister of the Community Presbyterian church reported that Mrs. Constance Marlowe of Ingleside has donated the piano which is now in the young people's room. This is the seventh piano the church owns, according to Reverend Glasse.

Recent Baptisms

Baptized recently at Our Lady of Perpetual Help church were Barry James Clark and Yvonne Maria Garcia. The Clerk infant is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Clark of 37 Muirwood drive. Mr. and Mrs. John Garcia, 3312 San Jose avenue, are the parents of baby Yvonne.

Women's Association Notes From Community Presbyterian Church

Summer schedule for the Women's Association of the Community Presbyterian church:

Ruthe circle will meet for a picnic luncheon with Mrs. Bob Mattson of 171 Wililts street in Daly City at 12 o'clock noon on Thursday, July 30.

Hannah circle will meet for a covered dish dinner at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening, August 19 at the home of Mrs. Mayo Bryce of 121 Garden lane.

Esther circle will meet with Mrs. Travor Jones at 924 Foothill at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, July 28. This will be a work meeting for the fall bazaar.

None of the three circles will hold meetings in August.

Yolo county received its name from an Indian word meaning "abounding in rushes."

Among the twenty largest cities in the nation, San Francisco ranks tenth in retail store sales.

Holy Angels Committee Sets Date For Tea

A tea sponsored by the Holy Angels parish library committee will be held on August 9 it was decided at a recent meeting. The purpose of the tea is to stimulate interest in the library, membership cards and book donations.

Recent books added to the Holy Angels library include—"Heidi" by Spyri, "Black Beauty" by Sewell for children, "Jesuits Go East" by Plattner and "The Stranger" by Carroll.

SCHEDULE OF MASSES IN LOCAL CATHOLIC CHURCHES SUNDAY

Our Lady of Perpetual Help church, 60 Wellington avenue, Daly City, (PLaza 5-2377). — Sunday Masses are scheduled at 6:30, 8, 9, 10:30 a.m. and 12:15. Devotions are held on Tuesday nights at 8 o'clock.

Holy Angels church, 107 San Pedro Road, Colma, (PLaza 5-0478) — Sunday Masses are scheduled at 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 a.m. and 12:15.

Perpetual Novena is held every Tuesday night at 7:30.

Midgets Roar At Belmont Saturday

Mighty midget racing autos will thunder on the Belmont speedway Saturday night, August 1.

Plans for staging of the midget race program were completed today, it was announced.

Races will be under sanction of the Bay Cities Racing association.

Main event will be forty laps on the one-fifth mile dirt speedway—a tricky course for the powerful racing buggies.

Johnny Baldwin, the Redwood City flyer who is apparently headed for his third consecutive racing championship, filed his entry almost as soon as the date was established.

Baldwin likely will compete against one of the hottest midget race car fields of the year, officials averred.

All of the kingpins of the western states will be on the firing line for the Belmont Speedway events, they said.

Jack London, general manager of the Bay Cities Racing association, announced the program will start time trials at 7:30 o'clock, and follow with a trophy dash to the fastest qualifiers, and four heats, a semi-final and the 40-lap main event.

Boy Scouts See Fish And Game Department Demonstration

CORONA DEL MAR — The 50,000 Boy Scouts now attending the third National Jamboree at Corona Del Mar are getting a full-scale demonstration of methods used to maintain California's fish and wildlife.

An extensive wildlife study area has been constructed by the California Department of Fish and Game on the once-barren hills of the Irvine ranch. All facilities are available for issuance of Boy Scout merit badges on conservation.

Department personnel, under Regional Manager John F. Janssen, have built a full-scale quail guzzler and a life-size farm fish pond at the Orange county campsite.

The guzzler is similar to those installed by the department in semi-arid regions to provide a year-round supply of stored rain water for quail and other wildlife. The farm pond is a carbon copy of many built and stocked under departmental guidance throughout the state.

A detailed model of a typical trout hatchery boasts running water and actual specimens of various sizes. Abalone shell specimens, and live game animals, waterfowl, upland game birds and ocean fish are also on hand

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL CLOSES TONIGHT

VACATION BIBLE school students are shown here outside the Broadmoor community center. The school, conducted under the auspices of the Hope Lutheran church and the Rev. Louis Marting, pastor, has been held here the past two weeks. Tonight's program marks the final one in this year's session. The pastor has announced that the final gathering will be in the nature of an achievement night. Also shown in picture are member of school's teaching staff.

WOMEN'S AIR FORCE SEEKE APPLICANTS

Former women in the Air Force who are eligible to re-enlist in the grade of airman second class or higher may be assigned directly to one of the 33 air force bases where there are WAF squadrons, Staff Sgt. Helen Kyte of the army and air force recruiting office at 2865 Mission street, announced today.

Applications for assignment at these bases will be accepted and processed prior to enlistment," she added.

The designated places in California include Hamilton Air Force base, San Rafael; Mather AFB, Sacramento; Parks AFB, Pleasanton and Travis AFB, Fairfield.

Women without prior military service will be sent to Lackland Air Force base, San Antonio, Texas for indoctrination. Those with prior enlisting in the grade of Basic Airman or Airman Third Class will also be sent to Lackland for assignment.

Further information is available at the Army and Air Force Recruiting Office.

BRIDAL SHOWER HELD IN CONCI HOME

Jackie Conci entertained guests at the 169 Park View avenue home of her parents at a bridal shower held in honor of Miss Joan Mays who will be married to Bill Craig some time in September. Miss Mays and Craig are graduates of Jefferson Union high school.

Miss Conci's table was decorated in pink and white.

Among the guests were: Miss Mays, Mrs. Barbara Mays, her mother; Mrs. Doris Craig, the groom's mother; Mrs. Vera Kaus, the bride-to-be's aunt; Mrs. Mary Conci, Miss Loyola Maddigan, Miss Cecelia Sullivan, Miss Marion Fair, Miss Barbara Fair, Miss Marilyn Tolle, Miss Joan Van Vleit, Miss Beverley Craig, Miss Pat Davis, Mrs. Verna Borges, Miss Betty Dentone and Mrs. Katherine Atwood.

When we moved West we found out...
Gas and electricity are cheap in California
says Mrs. Marshall M. Carpenter, of Marysville, below

How P. G. and E.'s low rates save the Carpenters money

These are the appliances the Carpenters use in their home for more pleasant living—

The Carpenters' P.G. and E. bill (recent month) $14.18

In their former home, the same amount of electricity and gas would cost $24.56

When the Carpenters came to California in 1952, they were pleased to find that gas and electricity cost much less here than in their former home. While most prices have doubled since 1938, P.G. and E.'s combined rates are actually lower! So let this bargain gas and electricity do more of your work . . . make your life more pleasant.

CEREBRAL PALSY TELETHON NETS $214,391.91

In the San Francisco Bay Area Telethon collection last month for cerebral palsy victims, the donations arrived in the form of currency bills and checks, and totaled $214,391.91.

There were $1,226,966 coins according to the counting and weighing machines at the Bank of America. Total weight of the coins was five and one half tons. Laid side by side they would stretch 15.22 miles.

The bills included: four 100's, ten 50's, 219 20's, 1,068 tens, 3,633 fives, 58 twos, and 65,214 ones. These bills were taken to the vault in 96 sacks according to Bank of America employees .

Six sacks full of checks were collected. They numbered 2,509.

Rural traffic deaths for May this year totaled only 186 persons, compared with 244 in May, 1952, the California Highway Patrol has reported.

FASHIONS AND DOLLS STRUT

The annual Doll Show and Fashion parade were held at the three arts and crafts centers sponsored by the Recreation department last week.

Vista Grande

Publicity was handled by the Village brothers who made posters. Donald and Rodney have been a great help in selling craft materials, cutting wood, and able broom pushers when it comes time to clean up the crafts room.

Committee members and judges were: Kathy Rasmussen, Eunice Waligora, Arline Wackerla and Turpie Rasmussen.

Guessing games were played before the result of the judging was disclosed, and Jim Mason, recreation director, arrived in time to witness the awarding of prizes. Winners were: Theresa Durango and Mary Lou Bisler, walking dolls; Lola Tarango, Barbara Huntington and Lola Plansky, baby dolls; Darlene Lewkowitz, Yolondo Frange and Turpey Rasmussen, smallest dolls; Larry Klein, Frances Conci and Mary Lou Bisler, largest dolls; Terry Lewkowitz, Larry Klein, dancing dolls.

Judges of the Fashion Show were John Tarango and the Village brothers. Prizes were awarded to: Arline Plansky, best dressed person; Mary Lou Bisler, best lady; Larry Klein, best comic character; Janet and Linda Millet, best dressed team; Berry Wayne Morgan, best western character.

Jefferson Elementary

The Doll Show and Fashion Parade were handled by volunteers at Jefferson. Chairmen chosen were Florence Benedetti, Fashion Parade; Barbara Castentini, Doll Show; Jerry Benedetti, models; Judith Marlo, Rich Garabaldi, Frances Mariana, Harold Gordon, Wayne Gordon, Michael Blum, David Ballentine and Barbara Balbi, assistants.

While the judges were considering the entries, games were played, an impromptu parade was led by Harold Gordon, who had donned a sheriff's suit for the occasion. Prize winners were: Cindy Balbi, best dressed person; Christine Castentina and Emily Tillford, est appearance; Eddy Giondona, Harold Gordon, best cowboy; Linda Giondano, Leni Giodano, best mother; and Frances Phillips, best lady.

Two-year-old Suzanne Gordon won first prize for the best foreign doll. Other prizes in this category went to Frances Benedetti and Christine Castentini.

Other winners were: Barbara Balbi, Cynthia Balbi and Christine Castentini, best baby doll; Barbara Balbi, Florence Benedetti and Betty Callen, best bride doll; Frances Meriano, Eva Bruza, Lois Valdrona, toni dolls; Ralph Olcesa, received first and second model plane awards. Richard Garabaldi, house; Eddy Giondano, trains; and Jerry Benedetti, cars. The afternoon closed after a hula by Cynthia Balbi, and the death scene from "Billy the Kid" presented by Harold Gordon and Eddy Giondana.

Crocker Elementary

The largest number of guests, the most participants, and the most enthusiastic youngsters took part in the Doll Show and Fashion Parade at the Crocker center. Chairmen were Rosalee Santiago for dolls, and Ray Bermudez for costumes. Pamela Connelly, Virginia Johnson, assisted on the doll committee; Bobby Scott and Bucky Hyers on the Fashion Show committee. Chairmen were in complete charge of the shows.

Nearly thirty youngsters had arrived at Crocker in costumes. Worthy of special mention are the four boys who came dressed as ladies. Guilbert Goodin, Butch Bricker and Larry Linda, best boys; Janice Keith, Victoria Caine and Janie Styrtevent, best girls; Charles Huntley, Ed Baker, funniest; Donnalee Ricci and Susan Freire, cutest; Sharon Carrer, Vivian Caine and Rita Jones, best lady; Donna and Ronnie Amada, best couple; Sandra Freire, Judy Ricci and Cheryl Fisolero, best housewife.

Victoria Phillips, Walda Atkins and Suzanne Lynn, best dressed lady; Evelyn and Victoria Hunley, best dressed couple; the Hunley family, the best family group.

Doll awards went to: Mary Price, Vivian Caine, Donna Almada, foreign dolls; Charles Hunley, Sharron Conner and Suzanne Freire, hand made; Waldo Atkins, bride doll; Mary Whalen, Donnalee Ricci and Rita Jones, baby dolls; Marilyn Carr and Donna Almada, princess dolls; Janet Keith, Susan La Magdeleine and Diane Smyserm, walking dolls.

EAGLES AUXILIARY HOLDS BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR VETS

Patients in Ward B-1 of the Letterman General hospital were given a party Wednesday, July 15, by the ladies of the Eagles' auxiliary.

The occasion was in honor of veterans who were celebrating their birthdays. Gift baskets of candies, and a beautifully decorated birthday cake were shared by all the patients.

Entertainment was furnished by Ruby Summers, accordionists; Arlene Herolett, pianist; and Boby O'Neill.

Visiting the hospital were: Mrs. Jean Blankenhorn, Mrs. Leonora O'Neill, Mrs. Margaret Harper, Mrs. Donna Ulmquist, Mrs. Mary Voboed, and Mrs. Alberta Diebel.

Plans are underway to hold a bingo game in one of the wards sometime in October. This will be in addition to the monthly visit made by the ladies to serve veterans homemade cookies.

BENEFIT BUFFET AND DANCE WILL BE HELD FOR EAGLE DELEGATES

A benefit dance and buffet supper will be given by the Golden Gate Aerie No. 61 tomorrow (Saturday) in the San Francisco Eagles center, 3053 16th street.

The dance is for the purpose of raising money to assist Eagle delegates to the Grand Aeire convention which is to be held in Indianapolis, Indiana, next month.

Chairman for the dance is Edward J. Palmer. He is assisted by: Frank Tomasoni, president; Charles E. Zimmerman, past-president; Harold R. Welch, trustee; and George A. Duddy, secretary.

Daly City Navy Man Is Given Promotion

Hickam Air Force Base, Hawaii, July 13, 1953—Alfred B. Barsten, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Barsten, 526 Vista Grande avenue, Daly City, was recently advanced in rating to aviation electronics technician second class, as a result of the recent Navy-wide competitive examinations.

Barsten enlisted in the Navy in February, 1951. He is a graduate of the Navy's Airman school in Jacksonville, Fla., the Aviation Electronics school, Memphis, Tenn., and the Advanced Aviation Electronics school in San Diego, Calif. He was formerly employed by the Driver Equipment Company in San Francisco.

Barsten reported to Navy Air Transport Squadron EIGHT (VR-8) at Hickam Air Force Base, Hawaii, for duty in May, 1952, and is serving with the squadron's Engineering Department.

Navy Air Transport Squadron EIGHT (VR-8), operating under the Pacific Division of the Military Air Transport Service (MATS), is currently engaged in the Pacific Airlift to the Far East. MATS is supoprting United Nations troops in Korea with an around-the-clock airlift of critical cargo and personnel at the rate of 110 pounds per minute. More than 60,000 Korean casualties and other military patients have been air evacuated to the United States. VR-8 planes alone have flown over 18 million miles since the historic Berlin Airlift came to a close in July, 1949.

Sweetwood

Augusta Zeige has returned from a trip to Tennessee. Accompanying her back to Broadmoor was her mother, Mrs. Edna Zeige who will stay for a visit.

Kathy and Eddy Edmison celebrated a 6th and 4th birthday jointly last Saturday, July 18. A party for several of their friends was given in honor of the affair.

Happy birthdays were extended to Mrs. Velma Nissen who had a birthday July 9.

The Edward Raymond's have returned from a week's vacation at the Russian river. Children Edward and Michele went along also and a good time was enjoyed by all.

Washington

Little Kevin Terry was three years old July 9. To help him celebrate a party was given and the following attended: John Murphy, Doug and Pamela Alexander, Linda and Donnie Peters, Steven and Janice Mackintosh, Betty Jean Moretti and Mary, Christine and Mark Terry. The usual party fare was enjoyed by all.

Village Lane

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Chisholm welcomed a baby girl Wednesday, July 8. Mary Frances will be her name and on arrival weighed in at 9 lbs., 1 oz.

Karen Olson had a tenth birthday Friday, July 17.

William Rogor Sisk and family visited his parents, the E. A. Sisks, in Los Angeles last week. Mrs. Sisk, Sr., returned to Garden Village with them to spend some time here.

Louvaine

Rayme Litchenberg had as her house guest last week Margie Wright who formerly lived here in Broadmoor. Needless to say the two little girls had themselves a time and at the end of the week were really tired out. The weatherman cooperated and kept the sun out all week too.

87th

It was a boy for Mr. and Mrs. Emmett E. Bledsoe who arrived July 12.

Gilman

The James L. Wileys welcomed a baby boy July 11.

Amaranths Serve Ham In Burlingame Tonight

The public is invited to a ham dinner tonight (Friday) given by the California Order of Amaranth, according to Mrs. Robert Allen of Westlake, chairman.

Mrs. Allen reported that the dinner will be served in the Masonic Temple, Park and Howard streets, in Burlingame. Tickets will be $1.50 for adults, and 75 cents for children.

First serving will be at 6:30 o'clock.

Silvestri Stars

Bob Silvestri, who holds the state amateur crown, led three California teammates to a 7-3 victory in the fifth annual Morse Cup Golf tournament last weekend near Portland.

Silvestri won four out of eight singles matches from the team from the Pacific Northwest.

Teaming with the local stick star were: Tal Smith of Alameda, Eli Bariteau of San Jose and Charles Seaver of Fresno.

SPORTS AFIELD

By Tom Keating

(Editor, Sports Afield Magazine)

Most of us agree with the theory that game fishes perceive colors about as well as we do, and exactly as we do. So, granting they see colors, how important is the matter of colors in plugs—especially in bass plugs. What colors are best under different conditions.

We asked Jason Lucas, Sports Afield fresh-water angling editor, about this. Here is his reply:

Now I must cast science to the winds. Nor do I pretend to give a definite and final answer. As I see it, almost the only thing governing what color lure to use is the depth at which it is to be used. So let's begin at the surface and work down: So far as I can determine, it makes no difference what color a surface lure is. (It's the action that counts here.)

But as soon as a plug goes a few inches under the surface, color does begin to matter. The few scientific experiments made seem to show that bass like bright, strongly contrasting colors in large patches without caring much about what these colors are, but apparently with some preference for red. This seems to be borne out by the fact that in a shallow-running lure—one that is mainly white with a large patch or patches of red—appears to be the best producer.

With lures running a foot or more below the surface, things begin to change and the deeper one gets the more difficult it becomes until one gets close to the bottom where it simplifies again.

It is in mid-depth that a bass's notions as to what color he prefers at the moment becomes so unpredictable. The plugs that work best for me are all rather dull in spite of the bass's preference for bright contrasting colors in shallower lures. Natural scale finish—pike perch and such—are a good bet. So is a fairly dark orange, for some reason I cannot understand. If these colors fail, I try some other dull inconspicuous ones. An exception to all this: In very murky discolored water I've sometimes done very well with bright or mainly white plugs.

When it comes to a plug for fishing in deep water as close to the bottom as possible, there is not much deciding to do. Formerly, I used to rely on two colors for such fishing—a plain white and a dirty ugly brown that I had to paint myself. Now I have almost given up using the latter and stick to the plain white. And by this I mean plain white, because any trace of any other color reduces the effectiveness.

Lions Treat Kids To Day's Fishing At Lake Merced

Nearly 100 Daly City youngsters turned out Wednesday to cast their bait into the waters of Lake Merced in quest of the wily trout.

The occasion was a "Kid's Day" at the lake, sponsored by the Daly City-Colma Lions.

Out of the many tyro anglers, only a few more than half a dozen were skillful or lucky enough to land a fish, but the others present enjoyed the outing, according to the Lions.

Master fisherman of the day was Mike Goulden, who brought in a 11½ inch beauty.

Two fish just a scant inch smaller brought Bill Glass and Leland Rowe the runners-up awards.

Young Goulden will receive a rod for first prize, while the other successful fishermen have already received weather gages.

VINCE AND FRED'S SWEEP THREE FROM SIXTEEN MILERS

Nick Bagriellini led the Vince and Fred quintet to a three game sweep over the Sixteen Mile House in the Brentwood Bowl Cocktail league this week with a 592 series.

Vince and Fred's are sponsoring a team in the 800 league at the San Mateo bowling alley also.

DON DELBON DAZZLES BURLINGAME INN AS HE ALLOWS ONLY ONE HIT

Don Delbon's one hit shut-out pitching against the Burlingame Inn club last Sunday assured Ralph's Cleaners of a berth in the O'Shaunessey playoffs which will decide the winner of the northern division senior title of the Peninsula Baseball league. The score was 8-0.

Led by the booming bat of shortstop Ray Rosa who collected a double and two singles, the Cleaners totaled 11 sageties. Longest blow of the game was a triple by Davie O'Bryant, new second baseman. Left fielder Murphy and rightfielder Brooks each slammed a double and a single to tie for second place hitting honors.

Manager Lou Martin described the single hit off of pitcher Delbon as the flukiest kind of a Texas leaguer. Shortstop Joe Connor of the Burlingame team dropped the blooper into center field in the third inning of the game.

The sparkling performance gave Delbon his first league victory in his only starting assignment to date. Previously, he had been used in relief roles.

Ralph's Cleaners victory combined with a defeat handed Snappy Cleaners of San Mateo by the Bohannon Yanks to give the locals undisputed possession of second place. The Yanks are holding down first place with a spotless record. They are the only club to hold a victory over Ralph's

Next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the local team will play host to the San Bruno nine at Jefferson high school field.

RALPH'S CLEANERS LOSE FIRST GAME

Ralph's Cleaners of the Peninsula Baseball League, senior division, entered the Funston Night league Wednesday night, and lost their first game to the good Pomona Tile team 5-1.

Arnold Brooks, Ralph's chucker, held the Pomona team to three hits but was hampered by wildness. The game was lost in the fifth inning when Brooks lost three men to the umpire, two fielders choices and two hits accounting for most of the Tilemen's runs.

Right fielder John Gaggero collected one hit in one at bat for the Pomona team.

FOOTBALL PLAN DRAWS THIRTY SO FAR -- DAVIDSON

Frank Davidson, proprietor of the Westlake lounge, reported this week he is confident that his promotion to supply football fans of the area with a ride and tickets to the San Francisco Forty-Niner football games will be a success.

According to Davidson, thirty persons have paid deposits for the season tickets which will be available between the forty-yard lines. This is almost a bus load, Davidson disclosed.

Reservations for exhibition games of the Forty Niners should be made by today (Friday). The seats which are available for the regular season games are not for the exhibition games, Davidson said. He predicted that a bus load of fans will take in the exhibition games also.

Two bus loads of fans may start out from the Westlake lounge if enough reservations are made, Davidson revealed. However, he said, that this will happen only if the response forces him to charter two buses.

WESTLAKE ROCKETS IDLE LAST WEEK IN LEAGUE PLAY

The Westlake Rockets drew a bye in this week's play in the northern division of the junior Peninsula Baseball league. The Rockets are tied for next to last place with the Millbrae Merchants. Each team has only one victory. Trailing them is the Sharp Park team which has yet to win.

The only convertible that outsells Ford!

WHAT IS IT that makes Ford's Sunliner America's best seller? Is it its high-compression V-8 power? (No other convertible in Ford's field has this kind of engine.) Is it the fine craftsmanship of its Crestmark Body? (No body in its field can match Ford's choice of exterior and interior color combinations.) Is it its new spring and shock absorber action which makes even roughest roads feel smooth? (The Sunliner's springs are tailored to its weight.) Is it the choice of Fordomatic, Overdrive or Conventional you get? (You won't find such a choice in any other car in Ford's field.)

No, it's not just any one of these things that make Ford America's largest-selling convertible. It's all 41 of Ford's "Worth More" features . . . features which folks know make Ford worth more when they buy it, worth more when they sell it.

News From The Parks

Zoo Outing

A band of 25 eager youngsters set out last Wednesday for a trip to the zoo. Marchbanks joined its fellow parks: Edgewood, Frankfort and Westlake, at the bus stop. With great effort to the 100 youngsters managed to get on the bus. By the time the zoo was reached, lunches were devoured. Once inside the grounds, Mike Wells, Mike and A. Crystal, Sylvia Villalta, Linda and Joanne Angle made a bee line for the swings and slides. The others rested for awhile.

The fog, which had greeted them upon their arrival, soon faded and Mr. Sun stepped in. Coats, hats and shirts were quickly peeled off and the refreshment stand had a sudden boom in business.

Babe Kane and Michael Kordoules set off on an exploring tour while Donald and Kathy Cubic, David and Anita Owen, Victoria Hennessy, Maggie Cripps and Sandra Gonzales enjoyed the miniature train ride and the merry go round.

At three o'clock the group tramped off together for a tour of the animal cages. After the tour the trek home was started with only a few mishaps—Sandy Gonzales and Mike Crystal were a little damp from playing on damp grass, and Bobbie Hall was a trifle tear stained due to momentary displacement from the group. These we check off to experience and label the day a lot of fun.

Girl Of The Week

Personality plus—property of Miss Sandra Gonzales, Marchbanks girl of the week. Sandra was selected as Marchbanks celebrity this week because of her daily attendance, athletic abilities and good sportsmanship. Although track and swimming are her favorites, she's interested in all sports.

A June graduate of OLPH Sandra will enter Jeff Hi this September. This young lady's aim is for a singing career. She will soon be taking lessons to fulfill this aim.

Boy Of The Week

Tow-haired Donald Cubic steps into the spotlight as Marchbanks boy of the week. A transplant from Seattle, Washington, Donnie now resides at 549 Hillside boulevard with his 9 year old sister, Kathy, and his mom and dad. He will be a sixth grader at OLPH this September. This good looking lad is a member of Marchbanks Junior baseball team. Don would like to be a doctor. He is quite a good piano player. The directors congratulate Don Cubic, boy of the week.

Baseball Clinic

Marchbanks Jr. baseball stars have been practicing hard and are in good shape for their Saturday game. This team of 9-11 year olds has shaped into a fine unit. They show real promise. Saturday's games on Jeff field will prove to be a test for their ability. If hard work and team spirit can predict the outcome, Marchbanks team is a sure winner.

Community Center News

Boys and girls under 12 years are participating in many activities now being conducted at the Community Center in Daly City.

In a ping pong tournament just completed the final winner was Mike Kennedy. Runners up were Ron Kalinin, Connie Murphy and Nancy Reynolds. In a Badminton contest there were 16 entries. The champion was Ron Kalinin. Following closely were Darrell Lung, Conine Murphy, Buck Hyors and Tom Reed.

The Shuffleboard tournament held last Wednesday ended with Jeff Pearlman and Jim Kennedy champions. Dale Auval and Mike Woodberry placed second with Mike Kennedy and Mike Nolan placing third.

Next Monday's movie will be "Fighting Man of the Plans" in color.

Basketball Game

The fast breaking Tigers played the All Stars in a basketball game at the Community Center last Monday morning. The Tigers led the contest, scoring 3 points in the first quarter, 12 points in the second. At half time the score was 15-1 in favor of the Tigers. The final score was 23-8 with the Tigers defeating the All Stars.

Swimming Party

Saturday night, the 18th of July, the Misbe-haven Teen Age club will get the ball rolling on their summer program. The pool at Jeff high will be open for the members of the teen club only. The doors will be open at 7:30 and the admission will be only 20c. It's sure to be a lot of fun so be sure to be there.

Searsville Picnic

A picnic will be held by the Teen Age club at Searsville. A special price of only 55c will be the charge for the grounds. Chartered buses will leave from the Community Center at 9 a.m. on July 25th. The charge for these buses will be between one dollar and one dollar and a quarter. There will be special grounds reserved for the Teen Age club members and their guests. Get out your swimming suits, pack your lunches and get ready for the picnic on July 25th.

Lincoln Playground

Lincoln playground sponsored a tetherball tournament last week. There were over 30 participants who entered the contest. Blue ribbons were given for first place and red ribbons for second.

The following received blue ribbons in the various age groups: Darrell Luna (14); Beverly Vers (13); Alan Anthony (11); and Phillip Benett (10). Red ribbons for second place in the various age groups went to: Anthony Gilroy (13); Walter Morales (12); Virginia Neuman (11); Michael Goulden (10) and Eileen Neumann (9).

The tetherball tournament was greeted with such enthusiasm that Lincoln playground plans to have another contest in the near future.

Frankfort Playground

Even now that the playgrounds are offering many summer activities, excursions still maintain the greatest amount of interest. Last week several park directors led a trip to the zoo. Among those from Frankfort attending were: Connie and Linda Lario, Jeff Paulding and Nancy Hartl.

For this week a boat ride in the bay is planned, along with a short tour of Fisherman's wharf. Robert Pike who has never been on a boat before is very excited. Also waiting for the trip are Gloria Ciarlianti and Marcia Nowak.

Archery is among the new activities scheduled for summer entertainment. Stanley Oliviera leads in the number of "golds" shot in four rounds, with teen ager Byron Garnett coming in second. Manuel Villa and Larry Caratti are among the "also shots." With Miss Erickson's fine direction we hope to have several good archerss by the end of the summer.

The undefeated Chinese Checker player of Frankfort is Al Soto. Some of his tutoring could certainly be used by the director, who lost three out of five games to him.

Jeff. Elementary Playground

The kids of Jefferson Elementary have been working hard practicing for the Junior Olympics which will be held today at Jefferson field. The kids are hoping that they can make a good showing in the Olympics. A few hard working aspiriants are Wayne and Harold Gordon, Rich Garibaldi, Ralph Olcese and Don Neville.

Everyone is looking forward to the skating party which will be held Friday July 24th. Sign up at your park now for a lot of fun.

Edgewood Playground

Last week 37 boys and girls enjoyed a trip to the zoo. The weather was perfect, and this added to the pleasure of the all day trip. Beverley and Jimmy Kearney, and Tommy and Shirley Farina grew especially fond of the merry-go-round. Jimmy Reeder was given a peacock feather by the zookeeper.

The children would like to express their appreciation to Mrs. Enberg and Mrs. Reeder who drove the entire group to the zoo in their autos.

This week the Edgewood playground extends a warm welcome to the Monyheen family—Patricia, Matthew and Douglas. These children are from Kansas, and are now residing on Hillside boulevard.

An interesting feature which can be witnessed on especially warm days is a commercial Cool Aid stand set up in the park grounds. The proprietors sell their refreshing merchandise at three cents per glass.

In anticipation of the forthcoming doll show, the girls are preparing prettiest dresses hoping they will be among those fortunate enough to win a prize.

Friday, July 10, marked the end of the fourth week of the arts and crafts program of the Daly City Recreation department. A new craft was introduced by Mrs. Nina Bryant at all three centers—Vista Grande, Crocker and Jefferson. This was the making of puppets and masks. Both eight year olds and teen agers participated in this new diversion. The puppets were moulded around discarded light globes with gratifying results.

Other work was done in wood, including the making of wooden trays large enough to hold two glasses of fruit juice. Miss Eleanor Hughes reported that the sanding and finishing were well-done and artistic. She was especially impressed with the original designs made by her group.

Crocker

At this center the stenciling on cork was started for tea tiles. Another pastime is the making of belts out of pyrocord. Plastic pins are made too in the shapes of animals. Next week older groups will start decoration of glass and ceramic objects such as bowls and saucers. This means that a number of kitchens may be raided for cheese glasses, old saucers, etc. Also, next week embossed pictures of aluminum and copper will be started.

The younger set—six through eight—spent last week working with cut paper and wet paper chalk drawings last week. An exhibit of such work can be found at all three centers. Parents are invited to come and see the artistic products of their children.

Plans are underway for the annual Arts and Crafts Exhibition which is scheduled for the Community center on the evening of August 19 at 7:30 o'clock. Awards will be made at that time in each art and craft.

FOUR DRIVERS AFOUL OF LAW

Four local persons were snagged by the Department of Motor Vehicles, according to the weekly report. They were Gordon Virgil Cady, 741 Niantic avenue, license suspended; Morris Ed Kosereff, 501 Hanover street, probation; Egidio Ricordo, 61 Moltke street, probation; and Earl Edward Olson, 230 Vista Grande.

Permanent reinstatements were given to Edward Boucher of Lakeside court in Colma, and Margie Richartson, 145 Parkview avenue, Daly City.

The Record At Work

Meet Alice Braumoeller--Bookkeeper, She Says?

When you call Plaza 5-4321 or PLaza 5-4322 and a dulcet-voiced female says, "May I help you?" you are talking to Mrs. Alice Braumoeller who claims that her official title is "Bookkeeper." However, Mrs. Braumoeller does many other things besides keep THE RECORD'S books. At that she says, "When I came to THE RECORD eight years ago, I did everything but work in the print shop, and if you want to call the Addressograph part of the print shop, I did that too."

Here are some of the things Mrs. Braumoeller did when she first was employed on northern San Mateo county's leading newspaper: She visited the police office to collect crime information for the paper; she attended city council meetings to report on them; she wrote some of the society news; she kept an activity calendar which listed all of the meetings of clubs, lodges, etc. (She says that people miss this service and it should be provided again. What do you think?) Soliciting advertising by telephone was another job; collecting from slow-paying advertisers was still another. During this period of her career, Mrs. Braumoeller was assisted by a high school girl named Verna Moresco. Miss Moresco is now an employee of the Jefferson Union high school, and her married name is Mrs. Verna Calderon.

Born in Beaver, Mich., Mrs. Braumoeller is not bashful about admitting the year was 1897. The family moved to Illinois ,and Mrs. Braumoeller received her education in the public schools of Forest Park. Later she took secretarial training in the Barrett Institute of Chicago. After working for at least two Chicago insurance firms, this busy woman moved to California in 1921. Her first place of residence was Lodi. In 1924 she moved to Daly City, moved into the house at 433 Santa Barbara avenue, and has lived there ever since.

Eight years ago, Mrs. Braumoeller retired after spending 18 years as an employee of Daly City. She spent this length of time in the office of B. C. Ross who was doubling as city clerk and tax collector. According to the lady, she worked only ten months out of the year at the time, but the work was exhausting so she didn't mind the two months layoff. She said, "Sometimes when we were real busy, Mr. Ross would get some part-time help, but we did most of it ourselves."

A memorable occasion in Mrs. Braumoeller's life was helping to take the 1930 census. "I wouldn't do that again for anything," she said. "We had about 50 questions to ask people, and they resented answering them. People just don't like to talk about their private lives." While taking the census, Mrs. Braumoeller finished her district, and then pitched in to help out two persons who had fallen behind schedule in theirs. She's still shaking her head about the task that was, and said that none had better offer her a job taking the proposed municipal census which the city council feels that Daly City should have soon.

Recently, Mrs. Braumoeller returned from a vacation spent in Colorado visiting her mother. She said the heat there was terrific, and that she could never live there. A sort of gadabout, the lady likes to ride in airplanes. Her longest flight to date has been to Youngstown, Ohio. At the time of that flight, she was on her way to New York, but a family illness forced her to turn back. Youngstown is the farthest east she has ever been. Her visits to foreign lands have been limited to the North American continent with Canada and Mexico hosting the gracious lady.

Crocker chapter number 382, Order of the Eastern Star, is the only lodge to which Mrs. Braumoeller belongs. She says that she is too busy to join any others, besides lacking the inclination.

When Mrs. Braumoeller was 24, she suddenly discovered that she did not know how to cook. She took steps to remedy this immediately, and is now quite the culinary artist. In fact, whe she arrived in Colorado to visit her mother she discovered that this lady had postponed entertaining friends until Alice could get there to do the cooking. Alice did the cooking for one meal, but the heat got her, and that frustrated her mother's plans.

Another domestic activity of THE RECORD'S bookkeeper is sewing. She confessed that until recently she used to make all of her own clothes.

Mrs. Braumoeller is the mother of two sons—James and Bill who live nearby. Her grandchildren, James, 7, and Sondra Lee, 5, are the children of her oldest son, James. She thinks they're about the nicest children in the world. Grandma might be willing to spoil them at a given opportunity.

Probably the most interesting thing about Mrs. Braumoeller's stint at THE RECORD is the nature of her employment. She agreed to take the job to help out in an emergency eight years ago, with the proviso that she could quit as soon as they didn't need her. Maybe, if she stays around for a while, she might escape from this temporary status, and become a steady employee?

The Record Bookkeeper At Work

KEEPER OF THE BOOKS, Alice Braumoeller, glances up from her chores as the cameraman catches a typical scene. Mrs. Braumoeller has watched over the intricacies of THE RECORD'S bookkeeping for the past seven years, in addition to performing an assortment of other jobs at the office.

OBITUARIES

McMillin

Services were conducted Monday from W. C. Lasswell & Co. for Adriene McMillin, a resident here for seven years, who passed away Thursday, July 16, at the Millbrae Sanitarium after a long illness.

Born in Oroville, Calif., she came to Daly City in 1946 and lived at 111 E. Vista avenue.

She was the wife of the late William McMillin, mother of Mrs. Geraldine Balin and sister to Mrs. Ella Cooper. Also surviving her are two grandchildren, Diane and Corrinne Balin.

Following last rites inurnment was held at Olivet Memorial park.

Coen

Mary Elizabeth Coen, a longtime Daly City resident, died Thursday, July 16, at her home in San Bruno, 292 Mastick avenue.

She passed away after an extended illness and was 60 years old at time of death.

She was the wife of Frank Coen and mother of George J., Frank J. Coen and Mrs. Betty J. Johnston.

She was the sister of Thomas Keating and the late Nell Turner and Edward Keating.

Grandchildren surviving her are Dennis, James and Jeffrey Coen and Judy and Timothy Johnston.

Services were held Monday at 9 a.m. from W. C. Lasswell & Co. and thence to St. Bruno's church, San Bruno, for Requiem High Mass.

Interment was at Golden Gate National cemetery. Rosary was recited at the funeral home on Sunday.

Higgins

Last rites were held Wednesday from W. C. Lasswell & Co. for Patrick Joseph Higgins, a bartender at Kirchhubel's tavern, who passed away Saturday.

Born in Massachusetts, Higgins resided at 291 Sickles avenue, San Francisco.

No surviving relatives were listed.

He was a member of the Bartenders' Union, Local 340.

Interment was held at Cypress Lawn Memorial park.

NEW POLICE CAR, TRANSMITTER TO BE BOUGHT BY CITY

One new police car will be purchased immediately, and another is in the offing, according to City Administrator Dan Andersen. The first car will replace that which was demolished last week after a collision with a truck.

Andersen reported also that another radio transmitter will be purchased for the police department. This will be installed in the city hall, and if it doesn't prove adequate a relay set will be placed on a hill in the area.

Daly City Is Represented At International Scout Jamboree In Santa Ana

A Daly City boy is among the 50,000 Boy Scouts gathered in Santa Ana, Calif., for the International Boy Scout jamboree.

He is Philip Delucchi, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Delucchi of 241 Oliver street, here.

A member of troop No. 49, young Delucchi is a First Class Scout. He will attain the rank of Life upon his return from the jamboree.

Young Delucchi earned more than half of the $110 which he needed to attend the international affair. He was given $50 by the Kiwanis club of San Francisco.

Upon his return from the Irvine ranch where the gathering of Boy Scouts is taking place, Young Delucchi will go to Camp Royanne near Santa Rosa, another Boy Scout camp. Later in the year, he expects to attend his third campout of the summer in the High Sierras sometime in August.

A June graduate of OLPH, Delucchi will enter Jefferson Union high school this fall.

Taking a moment's pause from Fiesta Art Show preparations, Peninsula Art Association members discuss their current paintings at The Mound, San Mateo, headquarters of the association. CITY TO CONSIDER FIRE ZONE LAWS AT MONDAY MEET

Possible easing of the stringent building laws which govern Fire Zone 1 (Mission and School street and Junipero Serra boulevard) is a topic for the city council's discussion Monday night.

The planning commission has submitted their recommendations to the council on proposed changes in the zoning.

According to Sanford Vickers, secretary of the planners, many complaints have arisen over the strict fire zoning laws. At present a builder must construct a four-hour wall between his establishment and the adjoining one.

The only way the four-hour wall can be avoided is by leaving ample clearance between the two buildings. Prospective builders complain that since the lots have only a 25 foot frontage, not enough space is available to allow clearance.

Many persons have also made the complaint that business is being hindered in Daly City because of stringency of the code.

WEATHERMAN CALMS FEARS; SAYS SMOG WAS REALLY FOG

A dense blanket of smog that covered Daly City and the surrounding North county area Tuesday was really not smog, but fog, according to the weather bureau.

The weather forecaster at San Francisco airport said the murky stuff was merely a heavy fog speckled with smoke particles. He explained that smog occurs when the air is dry and the wind can't blow away smoke particles because they are heavily concentrated near the ground.

The Tuesday weather situation was unusual only because the smoke particles lingered in the air even after the fog was dissipated. However, by noon most of the smoke had been scattered to the winds.

The weatherman said further that the smoke was sticking closer to the ground and longer than usual.

STEERING MECHANISMS

Did you ever notice how the casters under a piece of furniture swing around into the line of direction in which the article is bepushed? That, according to the National Automobile Club, is exactly what happens in turning a corner in your car. If you will relax your grip on the wheel and speed up slightly, the wheels will automatically swing into a straight line. And that is where the term "caster effect" comes into the vernacular of steering mechanisms.

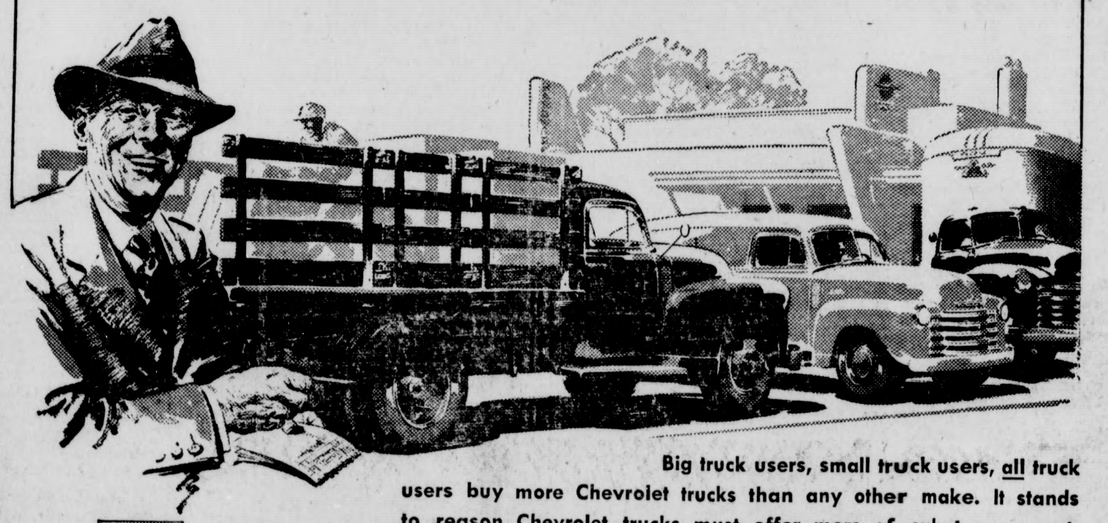
It stands to reason...
Chevrolet trucks must be the best buy!



Big truck users, small truck users, all truck users buy more Chevrolet trucks than any other make. It stands to reason Chevrolet trucks must offer more of what you want.

When you stop to think about it, the best proof of outstanding value in any product is continued public preference. That's the way it is with Chevrolet trucks. They're the top selling trucks in America today . . . for the twelfth straight production year.

This is a mighty important fact to consider before you buy your next truck. You'll also want to consider that, while Chevrolet trucks give you more features you want, it's the lowest-priced truck line of all! Come in and talk it over with us.
